

Hub Bearing Data

All sealed cartridge bearings can be replaced without the need for a special tool from Williams. It is best to replace the entire freehub body when needed vs attempting to swap freehub body bearings.

All Williams hubs, since inception of the business, use same size bearings for front and rear hubs. Freehub body designs have changed multiple times. Please visit freehub body section for details.

