

Shipping

General Information

- International orders ship USPS Priority Mail International.
- Continental US orders typically ship UPS. Small component orders will ship USPS First Class

UPS Ground Customers

This will show you the estimated business day transit time to your area from our location. UPS does not deliver to post offices.

Order Processing Time - Orders will ship same business day or next available business day.

Tracking Information - You will receive a tracking email for all shipments.

Delivery Time - We cannot guarantee the delivery time of any package. Shipping fees are never refundable.

Global Shipping

Duties and Taxes - Please be advised that a duty or tax will most likely be due on your package at delivery time. We cannot accurately estimate the amount due. Please call your customs office and ask before ordering! They will need the total value of the package being imported. Williams Cycling will not be responsible for any taxes, duties, tariffs, or importation fees levied by countries outside the United States on products shipped to its customers. These charges are separate from Williams Cycling shipping charges and are beyond our control or ability to predict in advance. These charges (if any) are your sole responsibility.